

Congratulations on your engagement and upcoming marriage! Whether you are a long-time member of our church or a new friend, we are honored to serve you in Christ's name.

I believe it is also a blessing that you have chosen to be married in a Christian service and sanctuary. Marriage is a gift from God and a covenant of life-long faithfulness.

As a pastor, a shepherd, it is my calling to care about your marriage and your relationship as a couple. To that end you will be asked to take an online professionally prepared survey that will be the basis of our time we spend together investing in your relationship and life together.

The heart of the wedding service is the exchange of vows of commitment and rings between you before the congregation and God.

Ideally, a marriage relationship reflects the love that God has shown through the ages and uniquely revealed in Jesus. Martin Luther called marriage "a school for character"; Through Scripture, a marriage calls forth such virtues as integrity, justice, tenderness, and love—through the joys and sorrows of whatever life may bring.

At a Christian wedding service, the couple is not left to their own efforts to fulfill these promises, but is publicly receiving God's blessing and support, as well as the affirmation of family, friends, and the Holy Christian Church. Your wedding is not only a glad occasion—overflowing with joy, celebrating the Creator's gifts of life, health, love, sexuality, and the family—is it a holy moment calling on Christ and the Holy Spirit to bless, strengthen and renew this union day by day.

We believe that the Christian wedding is a sacred service of worship. We look forward to being a part of that service. To help you plan, First Immanuel has established the following guidelines.
